

Fr. James Chuta (Serving)
Mark Howanetz, Choir Director
34th Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee.
Beginning of the Lenten Triodion

Epistle:

2 Timothy 3:10-15

Gospel:

Luke 18:10-14

Troparion Tone 1
(Resurrection)

When the stone had been sealed by the Jews, while the soldiers were guarding Thy most pure body, Thou didst rise on the third day, O Savior, granting life to the world. The powers of heaven therefore cried to Thee, O Giver of Life“Glory to Thy Resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Thy Kingdom!//
Glory to Thy dispensation,
O Thou Who lovest mankind!”

Kontakion Tone 4
(from the Lenten Triodion)

Let us flee from the pride of the Pharisee Let us learn humility from the Publican's tears!
Let us cry to our Savior:
Have mercy on us,//
O only merciful One!

If you know of any parishioners who are sick, in the hospital or at home because of health Issues please let Fr. John know. If any parishioners would like a pastoral visit, special service request or have any questions you can reach him at (570) 489-3891

Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee who scrupulously observed the requirements of religion: he prayed, fasted, and contributed money to the Temple.

These are very good things, and should be imitated by anyone who loves God. We who may not fulfill these requirements as well as the Pharisee did should not feel entitled to criticize him for being faithful. His sin was in looking down on the Publican and feeling justified because of his external religious observances. (OCA Website)

So they spoke,
God heard both,

And had pity on the one he saw afflicted,
Whereas the haughty one he rejected.

My God, I draw courage from the fact that thus you saw and straightway judge.

I am that publican in your sight, all deep in sin.

The help I hope for, is measured by the depth of my groans.

If ever my father and my dear mother did honor thee with tears, and groans, and prayers, or devote to thee even a tiny portion of their possessions, or made thee a gift of pleasing and holy sacrifices, remember them, and help.

I myself have never accomplished anything worthy of thee.

By St. Gregory the Theologian

Thank you for participating in today's Divine Liturgy.

We came together for our salvation and for that of the world.
One hundred nineteen years ago our grandparents greeted Archbishop Tikhon when he came to dedicate our church.

Archbishop Tikhon is now

St. Tikhon, Patriarch of Moscow, Enlightener of North America, whose relics, are now enclosed in his holy icon that we venerate.

Holy Hierarch Father Tikhon pray for us sinners!
